If a student had an Unusual Circumstance - Dependency Override approved at UTRGV for 2024-2025, they will automatically be approved for 2025-2026, provided their situation remains unchanged. The student must have a FAFSA on file for the relevant year. Processing may take several weeks, please monitor your assist account for any information related to your dependency override.

Instructions:

Complete this form if you were approved for a dependency override during the 2024-2025 academic year and your situation will not change during the 2025-2026 academic year.

Have any of your circumstances used to approve your original independent status changed? If yes, please include details in the personal statement as instructed in the next section.

___ Yes ___ No

Personal Statement by Student (only if you responded 'yes' to question above)

Attach a personal statement with your name, Student ID, date, and signature summarizing what has changed since you were originally granted a dependency override.
